

Louisville Trout Unlimited
General Meeting
November 23, 2010

Announcements:

1. The sale of Bill Kinsell's fly fishing things will be rescheduled for some time next year.
2. John Spencer said the Chapter survey will go out after the first of the year. It takes about 15 minutes.
3. President Lewis announced that T.U. will be teaching fly tying for UL Adult Education at the Shelby Campus on Thursdays in March, 2011. There will be guest tiers each week. There is a limit of 15 students.

Speaker: Tom Walsh introduced Jeff Crosby of KFFW who spoke to us regarding the Dix River-Harrington Lake Tailwater.

Minutes: The October minutes have been posted on the website

Treasurer's Report: Fred Doyle gave the month's treasury report which was accepted.

Committees:

Fly Tying: Larry Lewis reported that Dick Haas will be tying December 14th. A sign-up sheet was passed around for next year's tiers.

Newsletter: Dan Jackman reported the current newsletter has been posted to the website.

Programs: Tom Walsh reported December is the Chapter's Christmas Party. Karen Tuell, owner of Trail store, will be our speaker in January talking about safe hiking. Joe Bobrowski will be February's speaker talking about saltwater fishing in Belize. March's speaker will either be Tim Doyle, a Smokey's guide, or a swap sale/soup dinner.

Outings: Roy Weeks reported the 2011 Steelhead trip to Lake Erie will be April 16th and 17th. There are 13 people signed up.
